Relmant Chronicle.

Established in 1813.

ST. CLAIRSVILLE, OHIO, THURSDAY, MARCH 27, 1884.

THE NUTRIMENT IN FOOD.

ishment in Different Articles of Diet.

the most important truths relative to

Some kinds of food are more nutritious

New Series-Vol. 24. No. 13

TEACHERS' EXAMINATIONS. 1953 '84-Belmont Co., Ohio.

nd Saturday January, Bridgeport, iond Saturday February, S. Clairsville
t Saturday March, Barnevallie, Saturday March, St Clairsville,
d Saturday May, Belliaire,
d Saturday May, Belmout,
d Saturday June, St Clairsville, at close of Institute at Barnesville.

Examinations begin at 9 o'clock a.m. 'estimonials of character are required in plicant is not known to the Beard. ertificates will not be antedated nor ex Peats in the higher branches will be given lose of Institute only.

Trificates will be dated and issued by the rid in adjourned session on Saturday foling each examination.

SCALE OF GRADES FOR CERTIFICATES. A first-class (5 years') certificate is granted pon an average of 50 per cent, including three ligher branches, provided applicant has had hree years continuous experience, EIGETEEN KONTHE Of which shall have been in the same

MONTHS of which shall have been in the same chool.

A second-class (3 years') certificate is granisd upon an average of 90 per cent, including three higher branches, provided applicant has had three years experience in teaching.

A third-class (2 years') certificate is granted upon an average of 80 per cent, including one higher branch, provided applicant has had one year's experience in teaching.

A fourth-class (1 year) certificate is granted upon an average of 70 per cent, provided applicant has had one term's experience in teaching, or takes three higher branches.

A fifth-class (8 months') certificate is granted upon an average of 60 per cent, where applicant has had no experience in teaching or no higher branches are taken.

No certificate is granted unless the applicant answers 50 per cent, of the questions in each branch.

H. ALEXANDER,

H. ALEXANDER, A. A. CLARK, J. A. HENDERSON,

DIRECTORY

Principal Business Houses of Bridgeport GEORGE GIFFEN, dealer in Choice Family Groceries. Phoenix Flour a Specialty. WOODCOCK, dealer in Hardware, Stoves, Tinware, Glass, Nails, &c., corner Main d Bank St. Tin Roofing a Specialty. WM. ALEXANDER, Wholessle and Retail Grocer, corner Main and Bank Sts. A. BRANUM & SONS, Wnolesale Gro

Jesse Pratt. House and Sign Painter and Glazier.

Practical Paper Hanger, ST. CLAIRSVILLE, OHIO.

Graining, Glazing, Painting and Papering ione on short notice. All branches of the

A. BRANUM & SONS. Wholesale

BRIDGEPORT, OHIO.

Carpets and Oil Gloths.

Wall Paper

Widow Shades, Mats, Rugs and Tabl Covres House Furnishing Goods,

A larger stock and greater variety than can be ound in any other establishment in this city and at prices lower than ouered for many years. Persons going to housekeeping can ave money by giving us a call. HARBOUR & DITTMAN.

148 MAIN STREET. W NG, W. VA-

National Planing Mills LUMBER YARD BRIDGEPORT, O., R. J. DAGG & SONS, PROP'S

Manufacturers of Deors, Sash, Shutters; Frames, Mould ings, Brackets, Palings, Stair Rail-lings, Ballusters, News, and DRESSED LUMBER, Of every description and lealers in Lumber.

Shingles. Scantling, Lath, Joists, D. D. T. COWEN & SON. Frame-Timber. Fire Brick and

Iniiders' Material in General. UNDERTAKING!

LEXANDER BARRETT. SHEPHERD DAVI

BARRETT & DAVIS. DEALERS IF

COFFINS CASKETS AND ALLSTYLES OF

UNDERTAKING GOODS

LOW PRICES!

fhey are prepared to attend funerals at abort otice, having in connect to with their es-blishment a good He ree, safe Horses and a reful Driver. BARRETI & DAVIS,

Cor. Main and Fair Ground Streets, Mar 769 lv.

MANHOOD

How Lost! How Restored How Lost! How Restored!

Just published, a new edition of Dr. Calverwell's Celebrated Essa on the Radical Cure of Spermatorrhos, or Seminal Weakness, Involuntary Seminal Losses, Impotency, Montal and Physical Incapacity, Impediments to Marriage, etc.; also, Consumption, Epilepsy and Pita, Induced by Self-Indulgence, or sexual extravagance, dc.

The celebrated author, in this admirable Essay, clearly demonstrates, from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of Self-abuse many be radically cured; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain and effectual, by which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be may cure himself cheaply, privately, and radically.

radically.

AT This Lecture should be in the hands of every youth and every man in the land.

Bent, under seal, in a plain envelope, to an address, on receipt of six cents, or two posts stamps.

Address THE CULVERWELL MEDICAL CO.

41 Ann St., New York, N.Y

W.A. HUNT, Editor and Proprietor.

Published Every Thursday

Terms of Subscription: Two Dollars Per Year in Advance.

If not paid within the year 25 per cent wi e added for each year it remains unpaid.

Orrice —South side Main street, nearly o

Belmont County Official Directory. Common Pleas Judge—St. Clair Kelly. Probate Judge—Thomas Cochran. Clerk of Courts—Wm. B. Cash. Sheriff—Leroy C. Sedwick. Auditor—R. R. Barrett. Treasurer—Edward L. Feeley.
Prosecuting Attorney—Alfred H. Mitchell
Recorder—W. S. Hobbs.

athaniel Taylor. Surveyor—John H. Mitchell Coroner—E. B. Kennedy. Infirmary Directors—Joseph Bailey, Leones, James B. Ritchey.

Church Directory. DRESBYTERIAN CHURCH-Rev. R Alexander, pastor. Public worship every

ers-Owen Mehan, Morris Cope

Sabbath; morning service, 11; evening service, 7. Sabbath School, 9:00 a.m. Young mea's prayer meeting: Tuesday 7 p.m.; general prayer meeting: Wednesday 7 p.m. Strangers welcome to all services. METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH—
Rev. S. F. Minor, pastor. Sabbath preaching: 11 a.m.; 7 p.m. Sabbath School:
2:80 p.m. Young men's meeting: Friday 7 p.m.; general prayer meeting: Thursday 7 p.m.
Strangers are cordially invited to all our carriers

United Pressyterian Church—
Rev. Thomas Balph, pastor. Sabbath School: 10 a.m. Public worship: 11 a.m.
Weekly prayer meeting: Friday 3 p.m.
Monthly prayer meeting: Last Saturday of each month, 2 p.m. Woman's Missionary Society: Last Saturday each month, p.m.
District prayer meetings: First Tuesdays, Wednesdays Thursdays and Saturdays each month, 2 p.m. Young women's prayer meetrsonage, 1 p.m.

Masonic Directory. BELMONT LODGE, No. 16, F. & A. M. Meets every Wednesday night, on or be fore full moon.

ROBT. M. EATON, W. M. JESSE B. MEYER, Sec'y.

BELMONT COUNCIL, No. 54, R. & S. M. a four of Meets second Tuesday of each month.
H. R. BUMGARNER, T. I. M. the fact.

Grocers, HOPE COMMANDERY, No. 26, K. T. deplorable (for themselves) a fix at Co-lumbus on the liquor questions, as they are in Washington on the tariff problem.

C. W. CARROLL, E. C. deplorable (for themselves) a fix at Co-lumbus on the liquor questions, as they are in Washington on the tariff problem.

Necess

St. Clairsville Professional Cards. W. NICHOLS. Attorney at Law and Notary Public.

Office over Wests' Drug Store, opp. Bank. ST. CLAIRSVILLE, O. ATTORNEY AT LAW.

Will practice in the Common Pleas, Stat and Federal Courts.

C. W. CARROLL, ATTORNEY AT LAW Colline Block, op. St. Clair Rotel, Main

W B. KENNON,

ATTORNEY AT LAW, Office, Main Street, opp. Court Hous

- Practices before all the Courts, A. H. & W. MITCHELL, ATTORNEYS AT LAW,

On corner op. St. Clair and National Hote Office on second floor. EMERSON & KENNON, ATTORNEYS AT LAW, Practice in all Courts of Ohio.

Barnesville. F. M. COWEN D. D. T. COWEN. ATTORNEYS AT LAW, Office Two Doors West of Bank. Practice before all Courts, M. Cowes, Notary Public.

D TALLMAN & SON, ATTORNEYS AT LAW. Office Northwest Cor. Main and Marietta

J. F. Tallman, Notary Public OHN POLLOCK. ATTORNEY-AT-LAW,

Office, east of Bank, over Mrs. Evan's Groce (14814 ST. CLAIRSVILLE, O.

Miscellaneous Business Cards.

WM. H. TALLMAN, ATTORNEY AT LAW BELLAIRE, ORIO. Consections promptly attend to.

R. S. & A. P. LACEY, ATTORNEYS AT LAW. And Solicitors of Patents and Claims

Practice in the Supreme art and Court of Claims, and appear before the Departments. Promptness and satisfaction given in all business entrusted to them. Correspondence soluted, 529 fth St., op. P. O. Department.

WASHINGTON D. C. and St. (1988)

MILEY S. WILSON,

ATTORNEY-AT-LAW AND NOTARY PUBLIC," Office opposite Albert House, BARNESVILLE, OHIO.

BARNESVILLE REAL ESTATE AGENCY.

Eight Farms in this and adjacent counties and fifteen pieces of Town property now offer J. T. 80 FIRI.D. Ament.

Dr. FREASE'S Water-Cure Establishment. A health institution in its 50th year; for nearly all kind of chronic diseases, and especially the disease of womon. Open at all seasons; Circulars free. Address.

3 1-1 88 614'85-ly New Brighton, Beaver Co., Pa.

"Even Connecticut will give 6,000 Re publican majority."

convention which meets at Chicago on June 3, 1884. will nominate an unworthy

BOB INGERSOLL says of the Presidenbeart espouse both it ought to be beaten. The Democratic party has not the heart to deal with one nor the brain to comprehend the other. I believe the Repubparty is much stronger to-day than it was four years ago."

THE Chicago Tribune sizes up one of many Democratic boomlets as follows: a National character. There is just one He has money.

THE special election to fill the vacancy South Carolina, caused by the death of E. W. M. Mackey, resulted in the choice of Robert Smalls, colored. There was the State six Democratic and one Republican Congressman.

THE Cincinnati Saloon Keepers' Association has pronounced against that fraud, the graded liquor traffic tax bill. ST. CLAIRSVILLE CHAPTER, No. 17, Shoyal Arch Masons. Stated convocations, first Friday of each month.
J. B. RYAN, H. P.

State of the Democrats are ready to take the responsibility of throwing away in Ohio the two millions a year revenue from the Scott Law, let them do it.
But the degraded tax law proposed is

-Cin. Com. Gazette.

DEMOCRATS in the House have passed Mr. Randall's inadequate Postoffice Ap propriation bill, and thus have com pleted the first move of the session toward securing party capital at the expense of an inefficient service in all the Government Departments. They did, would not make adequate provision for Democrats pursue the same course in regard to the other appropriation measure, when the voters get through with the same condition that Mr. Townshend was in the other day when Mr. Reed got through with him .- N. Y. Tribune.

tions as these. GRAND COMPENSATION TICKET, 1884. For President, S. J. Tilden, aged 70 (Mentally strong, physically weak). For Vice President, H. B. Payne, aged 76 (Physically strong, mentally weak). Total, 146: average, 78.

1884 NOMINATION DRAMA. For President. Old Ciphergram. For Vice President, Standard Oil. Platform: "There's millions in it." Stage Manager-The Machine. P. S.-No admittance behind the scene except to monopolists.

CLEVELAND LEADER: Whatever else may be said of Kernan, once the fire eating editor of the Okalona States, he reference to Southern affairs. He is a wool-dyed Bourbon and believes in bulldozing and other forms of rascality through which the South has been made solidly Democratic. But he hates liars and lying, as will be seen from the recent effusion from his pen:

The South would be Republican to-day they lie, and they know they lie. The Southern people are determined that the ng the nigger when necessary, and the Democratic party believes in it. But the Democracy is cowardly, it is trying to get into power by lying; it has aban doned its principles for a few offices. * The Democratic cowards in Congress and elsewhere are trying to deceive the North. They say that the Southern peothat the old flag is respected as highly ion. The bankers, the merchants, and in Mississippi as in Massachusetts. It is an infamous, damnable, outragrous all business and laboring men of the over i said to an acquaintance. falsehood. The Southern people are not country know the value of a well regusissippi spit upon the old flag. The Kansas Legislature, in extra be found in placing the entire legislative ession, has passed a bill providing for branch of the government to Republican did yeet here?" the appointment of a State Veterinary hands, and the people will consult their Sorgeon and defining his duties. He is own interests by electing none but Re to be under the direction of a live stock publican representatives next fall and you tways tell the truth. - Arkansaw thereafter.- Cleveland Leader. sanitary commission.

WALLER, the Democratic Governor of THE narrow escape of New Orleans Belmont Chronicle Connecticut, despairs of the party's success this year. "The tariff agitation and believed by many, was due to the polit the lack of efficient leadership are killing | ical ambition of a Democratic Governor. our chances as fast as possible," says he. Contrary to the judgment of the ablest engineers who had made the Mississippi their study, the Governor filled up a gap it is indebted to the laborious researches A POSTAL card canvass of Iowa by through which hitherto the imprisoned of scientific medical men for many of the Des Moines Register resulted almost floods have been wont to make a way of unanimously for Blaine. The same de- escape for themselves. He had within human health, happiness and life. As cided leaning is shown in the Legislature reach enough money to build a strong population increases and the value of of that State, a poll of which gave twen- levee there, and wanted the name of food is enhanced, the knowledge which ty-nine preferences for Blaine to fourteen "the Levee Governor," and so built up chemistry has elicited is becoming more GEORGE WILLIAM CURTIS, editor of tractors could be expected to build it of view. Harper's Weekly: Whoever the candi | When the flood came, the new levee date of the Republican party may be, I held for some days, and the consequence than others, and if it should be found have every confidence of his triumphant was that the officials in charge of levees that articles which are cheapest have election, for I do not believe that the by which New Orleans was kept from the most nutriment and give the highest destruction lost all hope of saving them man. Of the candidates mentioned, I through another day. Had the expected money to the poor. Tables vary, but prefer Mr. Edmunds, the able Senator break occurred, the loss of property, and some of the general results are as fol perhaps of life, would have been attributed to the rebellious and cruel river, and the table, gives 88 per cent. of nutriment, tial campaign: "There will be two issues not to any politician. Happily for the and, consequently, a relatively propor -civil rights and protection. If the people, the Governor's levee went down tional ability to labor, compared with Republican party does not with all its first, and the water about New Orleans at once fell so far that the peril was escaped. The question now is whether the lesson will help authorities and en gineers to adopt more judicious means horeafter for preventing destruction by floods.-N. Y. Tribune.

President Jefferson's Successors.

We speak of Jefferson's period of "The Presidential boomlet which some office as having lasted for eight years, of the more obscure Democratic mana- but it is not wholly incorrect to estimate. agers are endeavoring to work up for Mr. Parton suggests, that it lasted for Roswell P. Flower, of New York, is nearly a quarter of a ceutury. Madison's simply ridiculous. Flower is in no sense and Monroe's administrations were but puted fact that two fifths of the human circumstance which entitles Flower to the continuation of it. The fourth and consideration in the eyes of Democrats. fifth Presidents had, indeed, so much in common, that it was about an even chance which should take the Presidency in the Seventh Congressional district of Jefferson; both had something to do first. Both had long been friends of with reconciling him to the United States Constitution, which be had at first op no opposition. The Seventh district posed. He himself would have rather grapes, raw, 27; beef, raw, 26; poultry, nonth, 2 p.m. Young women's prayer meeting: Second Saturday each month at the of the Legislature, which threw most of successor, but the Legislature of Virginia of the Legislature, which threw most of successor, but the Legislature of Virginia the negro vote on the Sea Islands into pronounced in favor of Madison, who, one district and was intended to give like the two others, was a native of that then powerful State. It really made little difference which came first. Josiah Quincy, in a famous speech, designated them simply as James I. and James II. The two were alike Jeffersonian; their administrations moved professedly in the line indicated by their predecessor. If the Democrats are ready to take and the success of his policy must be Buchanan was minister to the court of the responsibility of throwing away in tested in a degree by that of theirs. Both St. James, described in an article on The earth has nought but toil to give Ohio the two millions a year revenue inherited something of his unpopularity Buchanan, in the January number of with the Federalists, but Madison par tially lived it down, and Monroe saw this Magazine, reminds a correspondent a four cornered fraud, and the saloon nearly the extinction of it. The Jefferkeepers have warned the legislators of the fact.

The Democrate are in Just about as deplorable (for themselves) a fix at Co-legislators, in Harper's Magazine for themselves) a fix at Co-legislators of the deplorable (for themselves) a fix at Co-legislators of the calm which at the fact.

W. Higginson, in Harper's Magazine for themselves a fix at Co-legislators of the calm which at the fact.

W. Higginson, in Harper's Magazine for themselves a fix at Co-legislators of the fact.

Necessity of a Republican Congress-The recent decision of the Supreme out-deor sport in which he indulged Court sustaining the legal tender quality While the judge was his guest it chanced of Treasury notes makes the election of that a fine day for this sport presented a Republican Congress next fall a matter itself, of which Mr. W. was anxious to of prime necessity. It will be under- avail himself. He accordingly invited stood that the court has not had under advisement the policy of flat money, as catory sport. The judge didn't want to indeed, consent not to cripple the man- that question belongs to Congress and go, and tried his best to get off, saying Where broken on her stalwart form agement of the Postoffices in our nine can never come before a judicial tribu- that he would much prefer, with his largest cities, and left the salaries of the nal. The court simply takes the ground consen, to pass that rainy day in Mr. nine Postmasters as they are, but they that the authority to authorize the issue W.'s library among his books and papers. would not make adequate provision for the free delivery system, nor for the railway service. Cheap humbug like receivable for public and private indebt-could pass any and as many days in the this is easily seen through, and if the edness is lodged in the hands of Con library as he chose, but such a day as gress and that there is nothing in the that fo fishing might not occur again Constitution preventing the exercise of while bey were at Marshfield. The their party next fall it will be much in this authority at any time. This power judge, a a last resort, said that he really being conceded by the highest judicial clothes that the handsome black suit authority in the country it behooves the he hadon was his best, and all he had, people to be more careful than ever in and tht to go fishing in it would spoil their choice of representatives. A Con. it. To meet this objection Mr. W. di- she came bounding into the dining-room. ets the Cleveland Universe suggests gress favoring inflation will have the Tilden and Payne and then says: That power under this decision to authorize was resented at court in England, WOULD be an old ticket. And how the such an emission of paper currency as which George did. As soon as he apopposition would caricature it! We would place a heavy discount upon its pearecwith it Mr. W. said, "There, Doty the room, she was warmly greeted by her might expect to meet such crystalliza- face value, unsettle the values of real is a diss for you; put it on, and come roung brothers and sisters. estate and all articles of prime necessity, valuale time." banish gold and silver from circulation, and reduce matters generally to the con- ster, yu are not in earnest in what you chair rested a box, which she opened dition prevailing from the fall of 1873 to the resumption of specie payments in 1879. We do not say that the court it haseen brought down for." would be blameable for such a state of affairs. The fault appears to lie in the constitution, inasmuch as it does not inhibit Congress from making paper a can no be made useful. Could I wear at the group gathered round. legal tender. While the present circula- it in lashington, Philadelphia, New tion of legal tender notes was authorized York Joston, or even here? If I did, inside," Mrs. Thorn said, giving her a tiny by a Republican Congress, it is historically true that the party in itself has always been the unswerving advocate of real rather than representative money. good r but to go fishing in?" has the faculty of telling the truth with the circumstances under which the so called greenbacks were issued. Suffice Thusyou see, Mr. Webster, with his it to say that their circulation grew out well nown willingness to oblige, had of the necessity imposed by the war, and Queen the dress prescribed; and what they form a part of the debt imposed by a goodse he made of it after his return seen you for so long," Mrs. Thorn said the great Democratic rebellion. While home Editor's Drawer, in Harper's the Republican party has been the un- Magine for April. swerving advocate of a sound financial if the niggers were allowed to vote, but policy, it has been invariably antagonizwhen the Northern Democrats and ed by its political adversary. The office-seeking Southern Democrats say Democratic party bas, during the past can at Maud S., is they?" that the niggers are allowed to vote, twenty years, favored all manner of financial heresies. It has demanded the wort nigger shall not vote. They are right. manufacture of hat paper money by the They tell the truth. I believe in the shot ton, and advocated the payment of the with light and airy touch of humor, gun and the revolver. I believe in shoot- national debt with irredeemable prom- "A top can beat anything and every ises to pay. For the sake of success it thing would again champion the cause of flat currency and, if entrusted with power. would swamp the entire business of the in m surprise country through the reaction which in variably follows the inflation of values. wort "you can't ever get a tramp to ple are loyal, that the negroes are enjoy. It is an unsafe party to trust, particularly ing the fullest rights of citizenship and in view of the recent legal tender decispertains to Congress. Safety can only Anecdote of Webster. The amusing controversy and correspondence growing out of Secretary Marcy's court dress circular when James 90; rice, boiled, 88; beans, boiled, 87;

roast, 26; pork, roast, 24; veal, fried, 24;

venison, broiled, 22; codfish, boiled, 21;

raw, 7; turnips, boiled, 4; melons, raw,

3, and cucumbers, raw, 2.

family live on rice.

Mr. Webster and Judge Duane Doty, then of Green Bay, Wisconsin, were warm friends, and the judge at one time was a visitor at Marshfleld. Mr. Web ster was very fond of fishing-the only the judge to accompany him in this pis-as son as you can, for we are losing The judge replied, "Surely, Mr. Websay-tat you want me to go fishing in with much trepidation.

that egant suit and spoil it?" "Ye, I am," he replied; "that is what Theudge still lingered, when Mr. W. ty with bright golden hair. to sett the matter, said to him: "Have would't everybody laugh at me?" Thejudge was compelled to answer "WI, then," he said, "pray what is it

Thi settled the matter. The judge put othe dress, and went fishing in Mr. W.'s art dress, and saved his own suit. prise, Beats. "Fher," said the youngest sporting "Oyes there is," replied Mr. Wiggles-

"I ow one thing he don't beat," remark Mrs. Wigglesworth.

"Wit ?"

"Wt's that?" queried her husband. "Asrpet," returned Mrs. Wigglesbeat arpet." Tell the Truth.

A atleman at the theater leaned

"L here. This morning I sent you the power which the court decides ap- replichat you didn't have a cent. "Wif you didn't have a cent, how "Aif you didn't have a nickel, how THE SCEPTRE.

A Comparison of the Degrees of Nour The lengthening shadows eastward slope And evening with her dewy urn, Quenches the beacon torch of hope, To let the stars of patience burn, The world little imagines how largely

> The paths grow dim, the low winds sigh, The fluttering bird notes faint and And slowly up the sombre sky

The sad moon wanders, cold and pale

Yet on for many a weary mile Our pilgrim marches still must wend, the barrier as strongly as political con- and more valuable in a practicable point Through flood and brier, by lane and stile. Before we reach our journey's end.

H.

What word shall stir the jaded nerve.

What thought inspire, as on we fare, The baffled mind, so prone to swerve ability to labor, then knowledge becomes Beneath the leaden wings of care? Ab. Nature, when she made her toy -This wayward child of fire and clay, lows: One pound of rice, prepared for

The sport of every fickle joy power.

That ripples through his fleeting day Gave bim a fancy quick to breed Delusive dreams for every hourother articles of food. A pound of beef, irens that beckon and recede, costing fifteen cents, gives only 25 per And phantom moods of bliss an cent, of natriment. Yet countless numbers of the poor in New York strain a point daily to purchase beef at fifteen ome from the stars and flowers distil cents a pound, when they could get a The faith that these not vainly shine, pound of rice for onethird of the amount, That whispering wood and rock-crowned the rice, too, having three times as much nutriment as beef, making a practical And murmuring stream are all divine, difference of 800 per cent., aside from the fact that boiled rice is three times lome for their vanished love bewaileasier of digestion than roast beef, the The glorious eyes, the golden mane, rice being digested in about one hour, The voice more rich than summer gale, roast beef requiring three hours and a half. There is meaning, then, in the re-That they will know in heaven again.

some, self-enamored, seem so dear. So sacred in their own kind eyes, The following statisties are practically They cannot doubt what blossomed here and permanently useful, and show the Will bloom again in Paradise. percentage of nutriment each article mentioned affords: Oils, raw, 95 percent;

ome from the written lore of sage peas, boiled, 93; barley, boiled, 92; corn Evolve and shape the heavenly plan; bread, baked, 91; wheat bread, baked. ome wildly vaunt the inspired page And mystic pledge of God to man. rye bread, baked, 79; oat meal porridge, 74; mutton, broiled, 30; plums, raw, 29; so onward down the dark ravine

We glide beneath the glimmering night-Strange travelers to a land unseen eggs, whipped, 13; apples, raw, 10; milk, Where nothing dwells but love and light.

> Vain dreams! of mortal frailty wrought And nameless dread of nameless ill! Man's fortress is the regnant thought

One lesson comes to all that live. One final truth their lives declare-And nought to teach but how to bear the still, submissive, calm assent,

To act or pause, to strive or wait-

Blind to all purpose and event, And silent in the eyes of Fate. This, only this remains of all The bannered pomp of young belief-That man, forever Nature's thrall, in god-like will is Nature's chief.

Hope falters -- faith is dazed with fear-Earth keeps her secret-thought is This simply bears its burden here,

And dauntless fronts the life to come As some tall ship that meets the storm, aside, tried to save the doll from its wa

The furies of the surge are spent: Or, torn by rock and whelmed by wave Exultant when her doom is met, he rears above her ocean grave And sinks with every standard set.

DORA'S FETE.

It was Dora's birthday-the tenth her young life-and on the morning of her anniversary, full of wise importance, "Many happy returns of the day!" sev-

Some presents, tokens of their love

eral voices echoed, and as she went round

Inside, carefully wrapped in wool, lay a lovely wax doll, a pink and white beau- mother's silence than if she had received "Oh, how pretty!" she cried, "But no anzety about injuring the dress, for who is it from?" with an inquiring look "I don't know. But see! here is a note > letter which had lain Dolly's feet. Opening it eagerly, Dora read: "To my dear little god-daughter: wishing her many happy returns of this joy-ful day. Dorothy Kester." ful day. "My godmother?" Dora gasped in sur-her present; it is very kind of her re- prise and regret at the wicked conduct young artists under seventeen years of membering you, especially as she has not gently.

the doll.

Dolly was taken out, caressed, and admired by the youthful members of the of Atlanta, Georgia. Mr. Howell informs family, and Mrs. Thorn, wishing to give us that he inadvertently misreported memr of the family,"there ain't nothin the children pleasure, promised to give Mr. Tilden's atterance on the subject of ment for you, 'she added; and after, when | would not support that unconstitutional they were in their nursery, she came and measure. We find that Mr. Howell has

> Very happy were the children, their fingers. a dark frown knitting her pretty brow, to the history of the days in which we looked enviously at the happy possessor live. of the doll.

Dora asked, with a pleasant smile. Fan pouted, and tossed her head scorn-"No, not I; you don't suppose I am go-"But, Fan, it is as much yours as mine; guage,

"Aren't you going to help us, Fan?"

gently. sullen look crept into her eyes, as she went to the farther end of the room apart tions or qualifications, this being the sale liquor firms of Cincinnati, sent a from them all. the de did you get in? I'd advise the youngest, added. "Yes, most decidedly.

to a sudden interest. "What a splendid idea. mother? Jessie cried.

"Oh but she must be christened." Beda, conversation. A brighter look crossed her face, but form and composition of many of the she wavered a moment ere she answered. solid substances. "Yes, if you like, in a tone of condescen-

"That is right; now we will ask mam ma," Dora said, with a relieved smile for her tender little heart had been hurt at draining and open ditch draining. The her sister's indifference to her pleasure. The permission was readily granted by Mrs. Thorn; she also added, that in honor of the event, the children should have a scape, obstruct the labors of the hus-Mrs. Thorn; she also added, that in bonor "It will be quite a fete," Jessie cried apturously.

The great day at last arrived, but it was not until the afternoon that the children, full of excitement, brought dolly dress-d in all the splendor of white lace and satin bows, to the summer-house there to receive their guests.

At the end of their long garden, divi ding it from the green meadows, a silvery river ran, spanned by a tiny moss-grown There it was arranged that dolly's waxen infant, the procession proceeded ground. It is many years since the through the garden. Fan, who seemed quite to have forgotten her former envy, was laughing and plus water best. They have, besides, chatting merrily with her fellow sponsor, deep mend the soil. The roots of classes

"Name this child." came in a solemn voice, from Harry, as they stood grouped has serious thoughts of taking up every An exclamation of dismay broke from sinking it a foot deeper.

nany lips, and Dora gazed at Fan, then at Violet, in alarm-in the bustle of arranging dolly's wardrobe, she had forgotten to give it a name. "What people you are!" Harry said and don't know what to name it. Make May 7.

haste! say Susanna. A horrified "No," broke from all pres tioned by lows men as a Presidential ent; the idea of calling that beauty by possibility. such a name! "As we are its godmothers, it ought to e called after us!" Violet suggested.

Yes, so it ought! Then we will say, Violet Frances Dorothy," Dora said, joy-No. Frances Violet," Fan corrected, a at her cousin being first in this important Dora answered firmly. All the suppressed jealousy in Fan's with it: I will either be first or nothing. "Then be nothing," Harry said, calmly Come, who will take Fan's place?" "No one shall!" the child almost shricked, and ere they were aware of her intention, or could prevent her, she seized the innocent cause of her jealousy from Do into the water. A cry of horror broke from all pres-Straight out to seu her prow is bent, tery grave, but too late, for one moment it rose on the surface, the next, it sank, and was carried far away.

"Oh, my poor dolly!" Dora wailed, bursting into a fit of bitter weeping.
"Don't cry, Dora dear," Violet murmured, kissing the bereaved mother. "She is wicked, naughty girl!"

hier way once more through the garden. Mrs. Thorn was astsnished to see the woe-begone faces coming through the denated by the people of Sedgwick rounds, and went hastily to know the

They briefly related to her what had happened, and as she listened the kind smile faded from ner face.

the tea so temptingly arrranged to surprise them. them happy, she could not quite shake off to the perpetrator of the crime was ever were placed beside her plate, and on the the gloom from the little party; the sad discovered till Saturday, when a brother over the day's pleasure.

Fan, for very sname, keeping apart from the others, felt more uneasy at her a severe scolding; she wondered vaguely look of a determination shone in the dark made by Bradstreet's Mercantile Agency. what Mrs. Thorn intended to do, for a eyes when they rested on the suilen face $200,000 is the estimate for Cincinnati, and the remainder is allotted among 28 But she was not long left in doubt, After a week's stern silence, her mother one day announced her intention of sending Fan away from her sisters and brothers to a school, until she had corrected her one bad fault, and could live in peace and love with them. So in spite of her tears and prayers, Fan was taken to a daughter of Baron Charles De Rothsschool at some distance off. And it was not long before, gentle and | cousin in 1836. which had so spoiled Dora's fete.

Mr. Tilden's Wishes. The gentleman whose report of a recent interview with Mr. Tilden is attracting the Electoral Commission. What Mr. "You can help. It will be a nice amuse. Tilden said was that he disapproved and "Aamp," replied Mr. Wigglesworth, gave to each a tiny garment to make for promptly corrected his mistake in the newspaper which originally published and the account of the interview. This imtheir little tongues moved as quickly as portant correction having been made, we print the material portion of the in-Only one remained silent, and she with terview as an interesting contribution

In reply to Mr. Howell's questions, Mr. Tilden declared his intention to refuse to allow the use of his name before the the Fitz John Portsr bill. Democratic Convention as a candidate for the nomination for President. His wishes in this respect were expressed ing to spend my time working for a doll with the frankness of absolute sincerity, that does not belong to me?" and in the very plainest possible lanand in the very plainest possible lan-faisehood. The Southern people are not loyal; the negro does not enjoy the full-lest rights of citizenship, nor is it intended that he shall, and the people of Misparty likely to take advantage of the the Democratic party to offer to Mr. But the frowning face did not clear, a Tilden the great testimental of a nominender .- N. Y. Sun. *

RURAL TOPICS.

Chloride of lime, when used on the have a real christening. I will be the manure hea , no. only disinfects it, but clergyman," and Harry, Dora's elder is an advantage in arresting the escape brother, came over to his sisters, roused of ammonia. When mixed with plenty of dry dirt and thoroughly mingled with Ned can be the materials of the compost heap, it is godfather. But who will be her god-invaluable. The materials, however, nother? Jessie cried.
"I will ask Cousin Violet to be one, you gas is easily liberated from chloride of know I am godmother to her doll. Will lime, and as the gas will not ramain unyou be the other?" Dora asked, turning to combined it readily acts upon organic Fan, who had drawn near to hear the and mineral matter, not only 'fixing' the volatile substances, but changing the

Prof. Knapp, president of the Iowa Agricultural college, says that a broad distinction should be made between file open ditch aids the rapid escape of surface water, carrying with it all the eletea party; and might invite a few young bandman, and fail to meet the demands friends. most entirely prevents surface washing: the porous soil takes up the water like a great sponge, and passes it off through the drains. This is done slowly, giving ample time for its escape by the great natural channels. After a considerable fall of water it requires from ten to fourteen days for the drains to discharge the increase. A practical farmer, who has done a deal of tile draining, says that he has two fields, apparently alike originally, one of which is drained in lands ten christening was to take place, so headed paces apart, with drains 2½ feet deep. by Harry, in his character of minister, and The other is drained in fourteen-pace Dora, bearing carefully in her arms the lands with tile laid 334 feet in the draining was done; but the deeper drains have uniformly carried off surdeepened the soil. The roots of clover a bright rosy cheeked girl of Dora's own in the deeply-drained soil are larger and go farther than in the other. Although the first field is reckoned pretty dry, he other drain that is put down 234 and

NEWS NOTES.

The Kentucky Democratic State Concornfully; "bring a baby to be christened, vention will be held at Frankfort, on

Mr. Justice Miller, of Iowa, is men-

The statement is made by near friends of the President that he will veto the Fitz John Porter bill.

Mr. W. H. Vanderbilt has given a $10,000 trotter to a friend, and it is street talk that he intends to make all his udden flash of anger darkening her eyes friends similar presents.

Colonel Coates Kinney, of Xenia, O., states he has not been or will not be a "No, Fan. Violet is first godmother, candidate for the Republican nomination for Secretary of State. General J. Godfrey Weitzel, U. S. A.

heart broke forth, and she cried furiously: Wednesday of last week, of typhoid fever died at his residence in Philadelphia, on "Then I will not have anything to do after an illness of several weeks. The Virginia Senate has instructed that a copy of the resolution asking Senator Mahone to resign be sent to the U. S. Senate, with the request that it be read in the Senate

Pennsylvania delegates to the Nationra's arms, and flung it with all her force al Conventions, so far as heard from, are instructed for Randall and Blaine Arthur is acceptable to North Carolina ent, and Harry, pushing Fan roughly if he can carry Ohio and New York. Thomas W. Segar is the Democratic nominee for Governor of Rhode Island gagement of Mrs. Frank Leslie, widow of the publisher, to the Marquis de Lenville, of France. Monday morning a special freight train composed of 31 cars, all loaded with With lagging footsteps, they wended corn for the sufferers by the floods into the Ohio river valley, will leave Wichita, Kan., for Cincinnati. The corn was

The announcement is made of the en-county, and will prove a very substantial The young men's Republican club of Youngstown, Ohio, on Saturday night unanimously voted for a popular district She gave Fan one sharp glance, and convention and unanimously endorsed was about to speak, but suddenly checking herself, ramained silent, instead are 200 members in the club and all are cheerfully inviting them to partake of for Blaine. Seventeen years ago, Christine Krett a pretty girl of eighteen, was murdered But in spite of her efforts to make at her home in Dayton, Ohio. No clue end of poor dolly had thrown a shadow of the dead girl made public the confession of his dead mother that she herself committed the deed in a fit of passion.

A summary of the losses along the Ohio river from the recent flood, from which aggregates $702,000, of which Massilon, O., to Madison, Ind., has been different towns, the amounts varying from $800 to $170,000. These losses do not include residences, personal property, etc. The death of Baroness Lionel De child, of Naples, and married to her rise.

loving, she returned, all her jealous envy
"Yes, and you must take great care of gone; and now she looks back with surolas for the best original illustrations by age, brought more than nine bundred pictures under the notice of the judges. The names of the winners and reproductions of the successful drawings will appear in the April St. Nicholas.

> Jesse Lawrence, a colored rough as saulted Mr. D. C. Hilligas, at Cadiz, Ohio, on Saturday, and inflicted serious injuries. While trying to escape, he was shot and killed a policeman. Dispatches from Vicksburg tell of nearly everything for a hundred miles belew being under water. No loss of life yet reported. Farmers are hopeful that the worst is over. The Secretary of the Interior has ruled that the fact that a soldier had a disease prior to enlisting is not an absolute bar to his pension claims. Lincoln Post G. A. R., of Topeka, Ks., numbering over five hundred, by resolution will ask President Arthur to veto It is thought the fcot and mouth disease, now prevailing in Kansas, can be entirely suppressed within two weeks. Contagion seems to very slow. General Grant is now recovering rapidly. He has left Fortress Monroe for Washington, where he will remain for a couple of weeks.

The New York Evening Post is out for Edmunds for President.

rom them all.

"What is its name to be?" Jessie asked.

"I don't know: I have not thought of toward its most illustrious member and the Legislature to let the Scott law.